DAY 1 Arrival in Lima, Peru

Upon arrival in Lima, you will be welcomed by your local representative and escorted to your hotel. The balance of the day will be at your leisure.

DAY 2 Lima

Explore Lima on a full-day city visit, which includes Plaza Mayor and the residential districts of San Isidro and Miraflores. After lunch, visit the Larco Herrera Museum to discover its incredible collection of pre-Columbian artifacts. This evening, enjoy the rare opportunity to visit the Barbosa- Stern private Colonial Art collection. (B, L)

DAY 3

Board your flight to Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Stop at the massive fortress of Sacsayhuaman to admire its monumental stones and the ingenious architecture of the Incas. Discover the vibrant local market in Chincheros before visiting the workshop of Nilda Callanaupa, which is dedicated to preserving the arts of hand weaving and natural dyeing. Delve into the past at the archaeological complex of Ollantaytambo. (B, L)

DAY 4

This morning, explore the agricultural terraces of Moray and the natural salt mines of Maras before enjoying a picnic lunch on the shores of Lake Huaypo. After lunch, stop by the Seminario pottery workshop and meet the local potter. Later, visit a local chicharia to sample the local chicha, fermented beer made from corn, and try your hand at one of the traditional Peruvian games. (B,L)

DAY 5

Early this morning, you will be accompanied to the Ollanta station to board the Vistadome or the luxury Hiram Bingham train to Machu Picchu. Rediscovered in 1911 by Hiram Bingham, Machu Picchu is the only known Inca city to remain intact. Take a guided tour of the citadel's agricultural terraces, royal houses and temples. (B, L, D)

DAY 6

Rise early to view the sunrise over the ruins. Then enjoy some more time to explore the citadel on your own. Embark on the scenic hike to Huayna Picchu from where you can marvel at stunning views of the ruins and the valley below. This afternoon, board your train for your journey to Cusco. (B)

DAY 7

Explore the city where Inca legends meet colonial history on a morning visit of Cusco. After visiting Santo Domingo Monastery, built atop the legendary Koricancha temple, continue to the San Blas neighborhood. On route back to your hotel, pass by Hatunrumiyoc Street with its famed 12-angle stone and visit the ornate cathedral at the Plaza de Armas. End your day with a visit to the cacao and chocolate museum, where you will have the opportunity to learn about the chocolate-making process, sample some delicious treats and create your own truffles. (B)

DAY 8

Today, bid farewell to the former Kingdom of the Incas. You will be accompanied to the airport for your onward flight. (B)
